Defence Honours and Awards Appeals Tribunal Procedural Rules 2011

1 Rule 15
Repeal the rule, substitute:

15 Making Tribunal’s decisions available

(1) The Tribunal must give the applicant and the Secretary a copy of its decision on the review of a reviewable decision as soon as practicable after it has made the decision.

Defence honour

(2) If the hearing of a review of a reviewable decision in relation to a defence honour was conducted wholly in public:
   (a) the Tribunal must publish the decision on the review on its website; and
   (b) the published version of the decision must not contain classified material.

(3) If the hearing of a review of a reviewable decision in relation to a defence honour was conducted wholly or partly in private:
   (a) the Chair must decide whether to publish the decision on the review on the Tribunal’s website; and
   (b) any published version of the decision must not contain classified material.

Defence award or foreign award

(4) For a decision on the review of a reviewable decision in relation to a defence award or a foreign award:
   (a) the Tribunal must publish the decision on its website; and
   (b) the Chair may decide not to publish the name of the person to whom the award relates or any other information that is likely to identify that person; and
   (c) the published version of the decision must not contain classified material.
